INTRODUCTION

Our number one priority is to empower our people to be the very best, through crafting a personalized career path for you and ensuring you have the additional training you need to grow. Learn more about the IDP program and be greater than you have ever dreamed of. "We give people a chance" is one of gategroup's core strengths.

WHY IDP

The IDP is enbedded within our internal People Development process and ensures a robust succession pipeline within our organization. It supports your development and career growth within gategroup.

1. We care for your development, help us identify your ambitions and together co-design your personalized career-path.
2. Gain valuable advice and guidance from your Manager, your Mentor und HR on how you can reach your next level.
3. Undergo a 360 feedback and get feedback from various people you work with. Discover your strengths and growth areas and how you are perceived by others.
4. Get exposure and get considered for new positions and succession planning

REQUIREMENTS

Every employee is invited to participate in the IDP program. At gategroup we follow an inclusive approach: we believe every employee is unique, is treated fairly and get equal opportunities.

Employee must show clear career aspiration to achieve the next step of growth (also side steps). There is no mandatory need to aim for another role. An IDP can also support the development within the current role. However an IDP is not a guarantee for another role, promotion, salary increase or paid external training.

INTERNAL MOBILITY PRINCIPLES

To protect the IDP program and the IDP Owner we implemented Internal Mobility Principles, which are crucial for the success of the IDP program

03

Guiding Principles:

I. No Internal moves without involvement of HR. Cross-Unit moves needs the involvement of HR Director.

II. Internal and external candidates follow the same recruiting process and have a right to the same attention / professional handling of their application.

Process standards

1. Every vacancy is posted on gategroup Homepage and Job Wall (prior or at the same time as externally).
2. HR and Management primarily consider IDP Owners for open positions. However, it is the explicit responsibility of the IDP Owner to apply for vacant positions.
3. Recruiting decision is based on requirement of the role (fit for purpose)
4. Internal candidates are expected to inform current Line Manager prior to 1st Interview.
5. Grandfather/Grandmother (GM) is expected to be informed by hiring manager.
6. Candidate always receives individual feedback on their application and decision.
7. Line Managers agrees on transfer date (overtime, payout, targets) – otherwise contractual notice period apply.
8. Internal moves by first of month only (no split of payroll)
9. Usually no cross-unit moves between 1st of April – 31st of September

AS IDP NOMINEE / INTERESTED

There is a top-down and a buttom up nomination process

04

NOMINATION PROCESS

There is a top-down and a buttom up nomination process:

Top-Down Nomination

Line Managers can nominate capable, motivated and high potential employees for the IDP-Program. This happens due to structural gaps in BU Switzerland's succession plans and/or if capable employees are too shy to take the first step.

Bottom Up Nomination:

Employees can pro-actively apply for the IDP Program.

Take action:

Regardless on how you have been nominated or want to apply for an IDP, you (IDP nominee) must:

1. Prepopulate your own IDP document (Section 1,2 & 3 in the IDP document as diligently as possible).
2. Send it previously (at least 4 days before the Incontro Meeting) to the participants.
3. Send an invitation for an Incontro Meeting.

INCONTRO MEETING

Participants in the Incontro Meeting:

1. You as IDP nominee
2. Your line manager
3. BLT member, Process Owner or Section Manager of aimed position.
4. Your HR Business Partner or HR Manager
5. Optional: your choosen mentor (if already chosen)

What happens in the Incontro Meeting:

- Gain a common understanding of your career aspirations and development needs
- Joint decision by a unanimous vote, whether the IDP Process should be started.

If it has been decided that IDP should not be started, clear reasons for rejecting or postpone IDP to a later stage need to be presented. It is crucial that everybody is honest and gives constructive feedback. Evaluate together what possible alternatives to the IDP could be.

If joint decision is to start an IDP: Congratulations, now you have the commitment of all parties invited and you are officially an IDP Owner! Co-design your personalized Action Plan and career-path within gategroup.

AS OFFICIAL IDP OWNER

As an IDP Owner you are responsible for arranging your IDP Roundtables at least twice a year and show commitment.

05

5.1 IDP ROUNDTABLES

Once it has been decided on the Incontro Meeting that you should start an IDP, you are officially an IDP Owner. As an IDP Owner you show commitment and drive the actions agreed on the IDP document. In order to follow up on your progress during the IDP there are the so called IDP Roundtables.

During the IDP Rountables you have the opportunity to:

- give an update on your progress, what you have been up to, your challenges and where you need further support.
- Get valuable feedback on your progress and speak out expectations going forward.
- Update IDP document and the action plan.
- IDP Roundtables need to happen at least twice a year.
- After every Roundtable the IDP document needs to be sent out to HRM/HRBP (even so HR doesn't need to be in every IDP Roundtable).

Participants on the IDP Rountable:

1. You
2. Your line manager,
3. Your Mentor
4. HR (on demand /at least one Roundtable a year per IDP Owner)

5.2 WHO IS INVOLVED - THE DIFFERENT ROLES

Line Manager:

Gives you guidance, honest and constructive feedback. Provides opportunities to learn and grow by giving you more responsibility and freedom to try new things, leading projects, doing presentations etc.

Ensures that you have appropriate time and support during the IDP process. Constantly detects hidden talents & develops people.

Mentor:

The mentor is your trusted person and ideally comes from a different department or unit.
Acts as your sparring partner and door opener and provides ideas & recommendations and pushes you out of your comfort zone.

HR:

Nourishes an IDP culture, providing support, transparency and guidance. Participates in IDP Roundtables. Considers you for new positions and succession planning. Any suitable vacant position or ongoing project that could support your development, should be considered.

You = IDP owner:

In the driver seat, that means you show commitment and drive the actions agreed on the IDP and ensure that regular follow-up discussions with line Manager and Mentor are held.

5.4 DURATION &

An IDP process is not limited, but needs a reasonable timeline (1-2 years). ID their part of the agreement or not achieving their set objectives in the acti

5.3 POSSIBLE ACTIONS DURING IDP

All listed activities are potential actions during IDP which may contribute to your further development:

- Shadowing targets positions / Share job description, in order to understand position qualification & competencies
- Job rotations (within own department, other departments or other units)
- Inhouse trainings / external trainings / on the job trainings

- Participation in projects (related to development of IDP owner) and KAIZEN workshops
- Cross functional collaborations (also visits and tours to other group units and facilities)
- Possibility to undergo a 360 feedback via online tool and action plan implemented in "IDP"
- Takeover Deputy roles or interim functional changes
- Push for Peer-coaching and social learning
- networking and exposure: Other Units, Kaizen Workshops, XLab, InnoGate, BLT guest speaker, etc.
- External trainings or paid language courses can support the development process further but must follow the actual company policy and guidelines attending external trainings.

....and so much more!

TERMINATION OF IDP

DP owners who are not contributing (no update >12 months), not holding to on plan may have their IDP withdrawn and be excluded from the process.
